Sanctions

Yellow/Red cards

If a child's behaviour is not acceptable and they have not responded appropriately to verbal correction a yellow card can be issued as a first warning. This will follow the football system where two yellow cards lead to a red card at which point the child will be removed from the classroom/playground and made to stay in isolation from the other children.

Parents will be informed if a child receives a red card. There may be some extreme occasions when the behavior warrants a red card without issuing a yellow.

This sanction will only last for one day and we begin the next day with a clean slate!

Unkind Behaviour/ Bullying: A Guide for Children

Everyone at Hadleigh Infant and Nursery School has agreed that such behaviour is unacceptable.

What do you do if you are bullied at school?

If someone is unkind to you at any time you must TELL.

You must tell your teacher or any other adult at school. You must tell your parents. Only by telling can we stop this kind of behaviour.

What will happen?

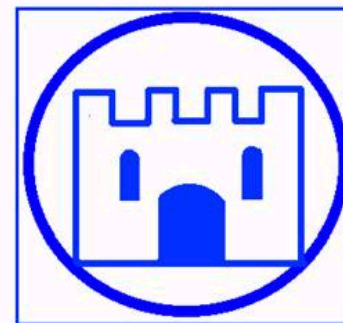

The adult will listen to what you have to say. They may write down what you say. They will then talk to the person who has been unkind and listen to their story. They will want to know why he/she is being unkind when we have all agreed that this behaviour is unacceptable.

Mrs Dalley will keep the information you have given us. This will happen if anything else happens.

Behaviour Guide

‘Working together we learn and have fun.’

We create a happy, caring and stimulating environment which provides a safe and secure place to learn. We aim to facilitate the positive challenges and choices that nurture and help our pupils to grow and develop. We achieve this by working in partnership with pupils, parents, carers and the wider community.
