Message from Mrs Fynn

The children had great fun on Thursday this week on World Book day—they looked fantastic and really enjoyed talking about their favourite books. Thank you for your support with providing costumes.

I am excited to share that we have two new members of staff joining us at HINS. Miss Hoath has joined us today in the role of Attendance and Wellbeing Practitioner, her role is similar to that of the one previously undertaken by Mrs Burls. On Monday we have Miss Kramer joining us, she will be working to support the learning of the children. Please do say hello if you see them around the school.

This week the Reception children have been learning the story of the Three Little Pigs, when I visited their classrooms it was lovely to chat to them about the story and watch them role play building houses with straw, sticks and bricks.

The Year 1 children have been learning about measuring this week, I have seen them exploring the school and measuring lots of different items using cubes.

Year 2 have been improving their ball skills in PE, they have been learning to develop their skills in fielding and batting. Even though this was sometimes tricky they demonstrated great resilience and determination to improve.

LUNCH MENU – WEEK COMMENCING 6 MARCH 2023

Monday – Pepperoni or Cheese Pizza with Pasta and Red Pesto or Jacket Potato with Cheese or Tuna and Fruit Platter

Tuesday – Chicken or Quorn Korma with Wholegrain Rice served with Green Beans and Naan Bread or Jacket Potato with Beans or Cheese and Chocolate Sponge with Custard
