

WALT write for different purposes.

Write a job advert that is looking for people to work for the NHS. The advert will try to persuade people to train to do one of the many NHS jobs.

Think about:

- introduction e.g. We are looking for people to train to be a...
- what jobs are available
- what skills are needed to do the job
- who will be helped
- why it would be a good job e.g. Working for NHS is great because...
- closing statement e.g. Contact us if you'd like to apply. (You can make up a pretend phone number or email address!)

Try to include:

- capital letters and full stops
- different types of sentences
- common exception words
- conjunctions
- neat handwriting

Here is an example but try to write yours in your own words.

Wednesday 17th June 2020

NHS JOBS

Apply now!

Looking for a new job? Why not get a job at the NHS!

We are looking for people to train to become an NHS worker at one of our hospitals or other health care buildings. There are many different jobs that you could do. Some of these include:

- Nurse or doctor
- Paramedic
- Midwives
- Dentists
- Pharmacists
- Physiotherapists
- 999 telephone operator
- Cleaners and porters
- Chefs
- Health care scientists and many more!

Are you interested in Science? You will need to know about the human body if you want to become a doctor or nurse. If you like cute little babies then training to be a midwife would be so much fun! Reading and writing skills need to be practised because you'll need to read and take notes about your patients. You will also need to be calm, kind and caring to make sure everybody feels safe and happy.

It's great working for the NHS because you will be able to support babies, children, adults and elderly people. You will be very busy but the job will be very rewarding!

Do you think that you'd like to work for the NHS? Contact us by telephone or by sending us an email. We look forward to hearing from you!

Phone number: 09876 543210

Email address:  workforthenhs@work.com

Join our team!

You can make the advert nice and colourful and add a picture if you wish!